DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/5/2005 has been entered.

Furthermore, Applicants request rejoinder of the subject matter of method claims 84 and 86 (see In re Ochiai (37 USPQ2d 1127 (Fed. Cir. 1995))), in which a new, unobvious material is used in a known process. Ochiai determined that a process was free of the prior art if it employed a product, which was free of the prior art. However, only if product claims 80-83 are found allowable, the subject matter of claims 80-83 will be rejoined with process claims 84, 86, if the process claims are of the same scope as the allowable product claims.

Claims 84, 86, are withdrawn from further consideration by the Examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 112 second paragraph

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 81-83 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1646

Claims 81-83 are vague and indefinite because they recite the limitation "having".

It is unclear whether this term is an "open" or "closed" term. It is suggested that the claims be amended to recite the "open" term "comprising" to obviate this rejection.

Conclusion

Claim 80 is allowable.

Claims 81-83 are rejected.
